Transport information

If you require additional details about transport in London and how to get to the hotel, please visit the Transport for London website <http://www.tfl.gov.uk/>

Directions from Charing Cross Station

The main lines that service the station are the Bakerloo and Northern Line. Guests need to take the main line railway exit and once outside the station the hotel entrance is on the right hand side.

Directions from Embankment Station

Embankment station is 100 metres down from the hotel, which is served by the Circle and District lines. From here there is only one entrance and exit, but once out guests need to head up towards the Strand and the hotel is located at the top of the pedestrian street.

Hotel Directions by Car

Follow signs to Central London, then head towards Trafalgar Square. Pass through Trafalgar Square leaving the National Gallery on your left and continue into Duncan Street. At the traffic lights, you'll see Charing Cross station ahead and to the right of you. Drive into the station access road in order to check in and drop your luggage at the hotel, which is directly above the station.

Parking

Car parking is available in the Spring Gardens car park (across Whitehall) at an additional charge. To programme your sat-nav, use the postcode WC2N 5HX

Hotel Directions by Rail

Mainline rail: London Charing Cross station is adjacent to the hotel

London Underground: Charing Cross Tube station is next door to the hotel; Embankment Tube station is 100m away.

Hotel Directions by Air

If you're flying into London City Airport, take the Docklands Light Railway (DLR) to Tower Gateway, then the Circle or District line (westbound) to Embankment.

From London Heathrow, we recommend the Heathrow Express: this runs direct from the airport to London Paddington in just 15 minutes (20 from Terminal 5) and there's a train every quarter of an hour. The Gatwick Express runs a similar service into Victoria. From either terminus, you can take the Underground (District and Circle lines) to Embankment station, 100m from the Charing Cross Hotel.
